Ladies of the Dove Scholarship

Founded in 1920, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. has since been a community conscious, action-oriented organization based on the principles of scholarship, service, sisterly love, and finer womanhood. Likewise, the Chi Pi Zeta chapter of Hinesville, chartered in 2009, exists to further the actions and service of our great sisterhood. The Ladies of the Dove Scholarship exists to help deserving graduates from Liberty County High School, Bradwell Institute and Richmond Hill High School with college expenses. The scholarship is awarded to two qualifying students each year. Please see the attached qualifications and application packet to enter the scholarship contest. Please send the completed application to chipizetasecondanti@gmail.com.

Michelle Obama

“The height of your achievements is the reach of your dreams and your willingness to work hard for them.”

Please write your essay on the following topic:

Michelle Obama stated that students should “Empower yourselves with good education, then get out there and use that education to build a country worthy of your boundless promise.”

Do you believe this to be true, why, or why not?

What do you think this statement means and how can you apply this to your pursuit of education and future goals? How will you utilize your future career path to build a country worthy of your boundless promise?
